ITB Book Awards 2015:

DUMONT Kalenderverlag and Moritz Verlag win the Calendar Award for 'Alle Welt'

Berlin, 20 November 2014 – Preparations for the ITB Book Awards 2015 are now under way. To whet audiences' appetites the event opens with an award for next year's travel calendar featuring the best images, with the winner chosen by ITB Berlin in cooperation with the RavensBuch bookstore from Friedrichshafen.

The winner of the 2015 award is a good suggestion for children's rooms. It is 'Alle Welt', published by the Cologne-based DUMONT Kalenderverlag, with the eponymous book published by Moritz Verlag. Martina Kraus, one of the judges, says: "Called 'Alle Welt', this calendar with maps is more than just a new map on the wall every month, instead it inspires curiosity. Readers find themselves entranced by fascinating faraway worlds and are able to forget time. Along with the larger, multi award-winning book of maps the result is a unique treasure trove with imaginative illustrations that not only children will enjoy exploring.

Together with the jury's selection of other awards - for the best traditional travel guides, travel books, illustrated travel books, maps, specialist travel publications, cookbooks and publishing innovations - the Calendar Award will be presented at the world's largest travel trade show on March 5, 2015 in Berlin. The Destination Awards 2015 will focus on Mongolia, the official partner country of ITB Berlin 2015.

Exhibition Grounds.

Every year, at the beginning of ITB Berlin, the annual Messe Berlin ITB Book Awards recognise the latest interesting publications from Germany and abroad, mainly in German, but also in translation. The aim of the awards is to focus attention beyond national borders on the broad spectrum of important intercultural travel and tourism publications.

After carrying out its own research the jury nominates a shortlist for the award presentation. Publishers can also submit book titles directly. The deadline for entries is 12 December 2014. Titles which are not ready for publication when the jury convenes are not considered for selection. The ITB Book Awards do not confer money prizes.
